Kam graduated in law in 1995 and practiced in Family and Criminal law prior to entering Financial Services. Kam was a Business Development Manager at Legal & General for 7 years which involved looking after a panel of Financial Advisers, predominantly in Oxfordshire. In 2007 Kam left Legal & General to set up her own Company as an Independent Financial Advisor. In the main she dealt with Pensions and Investments and built up a loyal client base based on referrals..

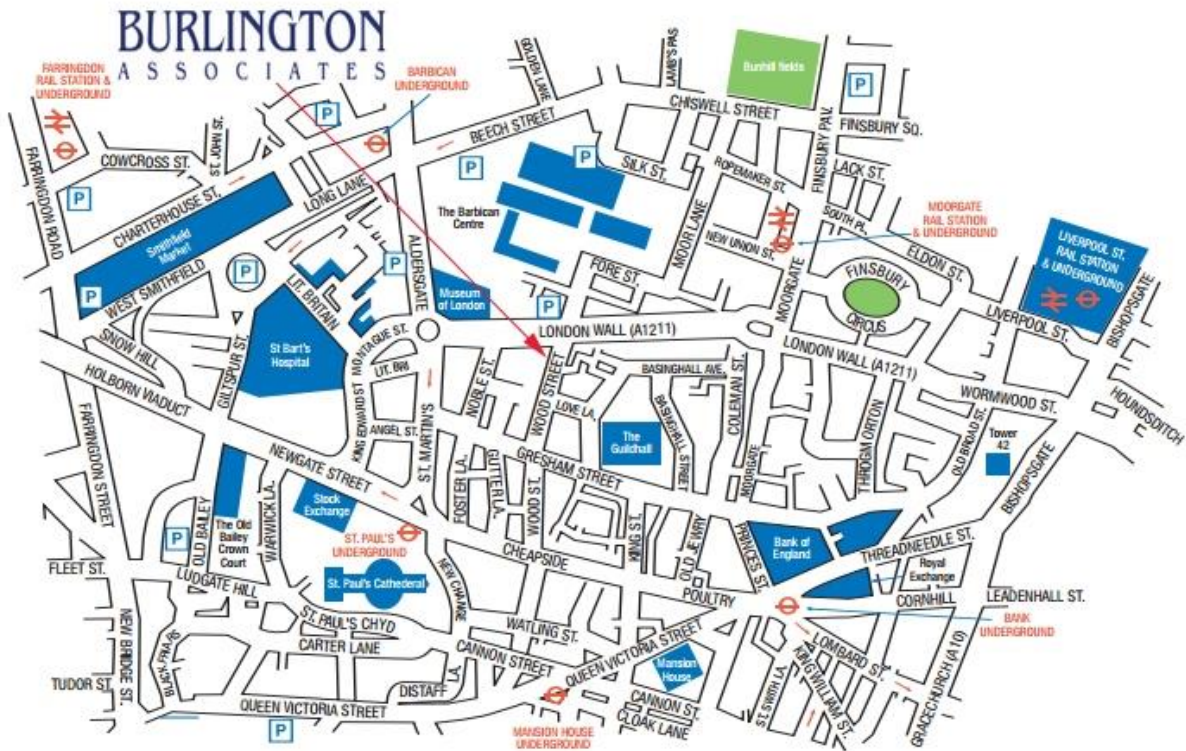

Kam enjoys advising on Investments and Tax planning having sat and passed the following exams G10 (Advanced Tax and Trusts) and J06 (Principles in Investment Planning), J05 (Pension Income Options). She holds the Diploma in Financial Services and is currently studying towards being a Chartered Financial Planner.

Outside of work Kam enjoys keeping fit, her regime includes running and dancing, having completed numerous half marathons. She also enjoys travelling the world and often goes in search of sun drenched locations with air conditioned shopping malls. Kam is married with two young children and any spare time is spent being taxi driver or event's organiser for her children.

Directions - By Rail or Tube

From St Paul's Station [Central Line] (Circa 5 minute walk)

Exit St Paul's marked Cheapside. Walk south (towards Bank) down Cheapside until you reach Wood Street (opposite One New Change shopping centre) on your left hand side. Walk to the end of Wood Street crossing over Gresham Street. 88 Wood Street is the last building on the left hand side, on the corner of London Wall and Wood Street.

From Moorgate Station [Circle / Hammersmith & City / Metropolitan & Northern Line & National Rail] (Circa 5 minute walk)

Exit the station on to Moorgate road, walk south towards the Bank of England, you'll reach a main set of traffic lights where London Wall intersects Moorgate road. On your right you should have the Globe pub and ahead over the lights you should see Rush Hair Salon and a Vodafone store on either side, turn right and walk down London Wall. Ahead you will see a salmon pink coloured building bridging the road with Jamie's bar & restaurant advertised in blue neon lights. As you walk under the bridge turn left onto Wood Street and immediately on your right is a large glass building branded 88 Wood Street.

From Bank Station [Central / Northern / Waterloo & City / Circle & District Line & DLR] (Circa 8 minute walk)

Leave bank station by Exit 1, 8 or 9. These will all bring you out on Poultry/Cheapside. Walk West along Poultry/Cheapside, away from the Bank of England/Royal Exchange and toward St Paul's Cathedral. You will cross over the intersection of King Street and Queen Street, you will then pass St Mary le Bow church on your left, continue until you have One New Change shopping centre on your left and Wood Street will be on your right joining Cheapside. Walk to the end of Wood Street crossing over Gresham Street. 88 Wood Street is the last building on the left hand side, on the corner of London Wall and Wood Street.

From Mansion House [District & Circle Line] (Circa 8 minute walk)

Exit the station onto Cannon Street. Walk East on Cannon Street and take the first major right – Bread Street. Walk up Bread Street until you get to Cheapside (On New Change shopping centre will be on your left). Cross over the road and take the road marked Wood Street (slightly to the left of where you cross over from Bread Street across Cheapside). Walk to the end of Wood Street crossing over Gresham Street. 88 Wood Street is the last building on the left hand side, on the corner of London Wall and Wood Street.

Directions - By Car

The nearest NCP car parks are on London Wall and Aldersgate.
